Social Justice Week 8-14 September 2024

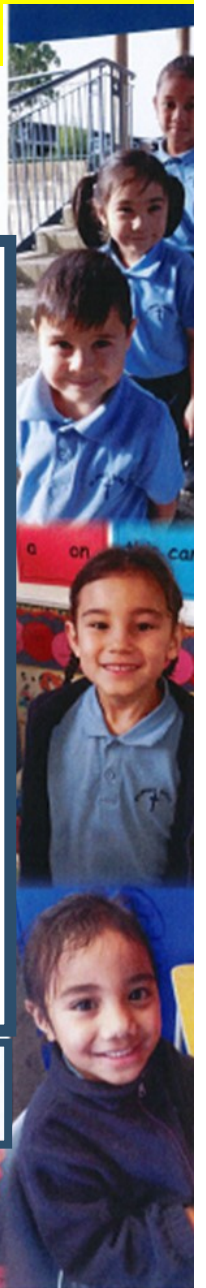

What is social justice?

Social justice is all about fairness, where everyone feels valued and diversity is celebrated.

Peace for all.

*I can do all things in Christ because he gives me strength.

Drama Performances—last week of Term Three

In the last week of school every child will be performing plays in the school hall. It would be wonderful to see families see their child/children on stage.

In order to cover costs the price for admission is $10 per adult (14 years and over). Tickets need to be bought prior to the event. They are available from the office from Monday 16 September. If you are coming for 2 nights $10 per night, 3 nights $25 and 4 nights $30. The tickets will be colour coded for each night. Ideally tickets need to be prepurchased so we do not have overcrowding like last year. Door sales only if there are tickets available.

Ngā mihi nui kia koutou katoa,

Week 08

Kia ora koutou e te whānau o Hāto Paora,

The school welcomed Mrs Carol Stoney from the Education Review Office with a pōwhiri yesterday. Congratulations to our Kapa Haka group who exemplified respect and pride. Special thanks to Matua Johann who created our St Paul's Haka which the boys lead also with pride. They are looking forward to teaching the school the haka. Our Kaikaranga who called in our visitor did an amazing job. Our school all joined in and enthusiastically sang waiata and our school song. Well done everyone. I am so proud of you all.

Friday 13 September: Non—uniform day or mufti day.

Help our local community by bringing grocery items to school, e.g. flour, jam, baked beans, tins of spaghetti, dishwashing liquid, jellies, crackers, biscuits, peanut butter, vegemite, marmite, rice, noodles, pasta, toilet paper tins of fruit, tomato sauce, tea, coffee, etc.

Social Justice Week

(8-14 September 2024)

This week, children are invited to bring in non-perishable items/ grocery items for St Vincent de Paul - Massey, to help our local community and whānau. Please bring them to the classroom.

Central West Primary Gymnastics Competition on 29th August

In Week 6, our St Paul's Gymnastics Year 3, 4, 5 and 6 teams competed in the Central West Primary competition. They did a great job representing St Paul's with skill and sportsmanship. Our Year 3 and 4 teams did amazingly well and achieved two first placings and a third in the team's event. Rylee Berghan and Archer McKenna also achieved podium places in the individual competitions. Tomorrow we will be part of the Champions' competition against other gymnasts from across Auckland. Thank you to everyone who came to support us.

Be peaceful, forgive others.

Mary Zellman,
Principal
